

George Gore

George was born in Rochelle, Georgia to Mary and Barney Gore. George graduated from Mackenzie High School in Detroit; attended Highland Park College for 2 years before joining the Air Force, George is a Vietnam Veteran. George, after living in California and attending USC, returns to Detroit and graduated from Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan where he received his bachelor degree. He later obtained a Masters Certification in Project Management from George Washington University in Washington, DC. George has taken leadership executive training at MIT and Wharton school of business. He is also, a graduate of Leadership New Jersey, a fellows program. George holds several other certifications in computers, electronics, and photography.

George is currently hosts a Show called the Community on Harvest Radio 1070 AM or Enjoyharvest.com. George is currently the Community Affairs Coordinator for the State NAACP, he also serves as the Grand Liaison Officer for Civil Liberties in the Elks (nationwide), the Grand IT Deputy Director, and the State Director of the Civil Liberties Department for the ELKS. George in other community service roles, is a member of the City of Plainfield's Human Relation Commission. During his career he provided technical support for National and international trade shows and serves as the AT&T Project Manager for multiple Olympics', as well as, being an Associate Member of Latin American/Caribbean Advisory Council.