

Orestes R. Williams

Orestes R. Williams born in Winston-Salem, NC and a graduate from Federal City College with a BS in Applied Mathematics. After completing his undergraduate education, Orestes was initially employed by ITT Grinnell Industrial Piping as a Process Writer. In 1977 he was hired by Western Electric and received additional education from George Washington University in Project Management, Material Management from Georgia Technology University and other internal Bell System classes. In addition, Mr. Williams is Certified Occupancy Specialist.

He held several positions a Trainer, a Process Auditor, Vendor Manager, A Process Manager and Staff Manager under different names affiliated with AT&T. Orestes retired from Avaya Communication (formally AT&T Business Communications) in 2006 with 29 years of service.

Currently, he is a member of two Plainfield Senior Citizen Boards, The Friends of the Center and Advisory Board. Mr. Williams holds the office of Vice President of the United Plainfield Housing Corporation Board of Directors. He is function as the Operational Manager for the United Plainfield Housing Management Company.

Western Electric moved him and his family to Plainfield in 1980 from North Carolina. He and his wife, Betsy has raised 5 children.