

DONNA EDWARDS

A native of New York City Donna Edwards has resided in Plainfield, N.J. for the past 4 decades. A graduate of The City College New York she holds a BS degree in education. After 22 years she retired from the telecommunications industry. She then worked for the Plainfield Board of Education as a substitute teacher for 11 years. Contributing to the community is very important. Being a member of this board is an integral vehicle to that end.
